

Hawaiian Gazette

VOL. LV, NO. 62

HONOLULU, HAWAII TERRITORY. TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1912.—SEMI WEEKLY.

WHOLE NO. 314

INTERVENTION IS NOW ALMOST CERTAIN

Strong Pressure Is Brought to Bear on President to Invade Mexico.

TROOPS MAY CROSS BORDER

Five Hundred Americans Are in Danger at Cananea—Capital Excited.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

WASHINGTON, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Today's discussion of intervention in Mexico is confined almost exclusively to the question of whether United States forces should be sent across the border by President Taft without calling a special session of the Congress to authorize such action. The impression that there will be intervention grows hourly.

Already men high in official circles are declaring without reservation that the United States will invade the Southern Republic. Pressure to force intervention has come from scores of sources, religious, commercial, national and international, and the proponents of intervention are frankly astonished that President Taft has been able so long to withstand the insistent demands that an army be sent to Mexico.

Officers Are Executed.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

MEXICO CITY, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Antonio Sierros and three of his lieutenants who had aided him in forming a plan to open the capital to the Zapatistas on the night of September 15, were executed today by a squad of soldiers. Sierros confessed that he and his followers expected to engage in looting on the National holiday, next Sunday. They also confessed to having raided and robbed a number of villages in the federal district.

Yesterday the prisoners were sent to Chilco and placed at the disposal of the military commander. The commander heard the evidence and passed sentence of execution all within twenty-four hours.

That trouble is still feared on the night of the 15th is indicated by the fact that the bankers of the capital have agreed to act as guards on that night, arming their men with rifles from the government arsenals. It is also learned that big jewelry houses are placing all of their valuables in stock in the banks for safe keeping.

Rebels Threaten Cananea.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

WASHINGTON, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Arms and ammunition which President Taft authorized to be exported to Mexico for the use of United States citizens in danger from rebels in Cananea have been ordered held up in Douglas, Arizona, until there are assurances that they will not fall into the hands of the rebels.

The arms will be held in Douglas until the railroad south as far as Macozari is clear of rebels or until the Mexican government is able to furnish a guard to assure the safe delivery of the arms. It is expected here that the immediate effect of rebel interference with the railroad will be to hasten the extra session of the Mexican senate to authorize the sending of troops out of Mexico and across New Mexico and Arizona to Chihuahua and Sonora.

General E. F. Steever, in command of the United States border patrol, reports the forces now sufficient to repel any raid.

Americans in Danger.

DOUGLAS, Arizona, September 9.—(By Associated Press Cable.)—General Salazar, the rebel leader here, has given notice that he intends to make an attack on Cananea, where 600 Americans are isolated. A carload of ammunition, which was to be sent to cut off their supply, has been withheld, as the Americans feared it would be intercepted and seized by the rebels. The utmost anxiety prevails.

Southern Pacific Train Burned.

TUCSON, Arizona, September 9.—(By Associated Press Cable.)—General Llano Lampa, leader of the rebels in this section, has burned a train on the Southern Pacific branch and notified the Southern Pacific Company that he will burn its tracks into it if it attempts to send federal troops.

Retirement to Mexico.

MEXICO CITY, September 9.—(By Associated Press Cable.)—Reports of intervention in Mexico by the United States have stirred this city profoundly. The popular excitement continues.

Both miners and soldiers have sprung into action because of the fear of rebels raiding and attacks of mining districts.

Cananea, Mexico, Where American Millions Are Invested

AMERICAN MINERS AT CANANEA.

HOPE FOR GIRL INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT ALAMEDA

Harry F. Lewis and George Whitney Severely Hurt—Miss Nellie Barracough Operated On, May Live.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

SAN FRANCISCO, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Seven persons were injured early this morning when an automobile belonging to H. F. Lewis, a wealthy Honolulan, was struck and thrown thirty feet by an East bound Key Route train at Hopkins street and the Alameda North Brae. The injuries of Miss Nellie Barracough of Honolulu, Lewis' niece, were at first thought to be fatal.

Miss Barracough sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries. Phelps had cuts about head and face and sprained ankle; Captain Houdlette severe shock and minor bruises; George Whitney fractured hip, internal injury and laceration of head; Mrs. Houdlette bruises and laceration; Mr. Lewis fractured hip and serious lacerations; Chauffeur Rose dislocated hip.

End of Pleasure Ride.

"Accident occurred at conclusion of a pleasure ride during which Mr. Lewis was displaying his newly purchased seven-passenger touring car. Chauffeur Rose puts all blame on himself, who was unaware of dangerous crossing at foot of steep hill. He was crossing and realized that only chance was to increase speed, but was not quick enough and train hit his machine squarely in the center. Victims of the wreck were taken to the Roosevelt Hospital where Miss Barracough regained consciousness for a short time.

Whitney and Lewis were on the side of the car which received the force of the blow. None of the occupants were thrown out, but the top of the machine was crushed in such a manner as to hold all captive."

Operate on Miss Barracough.

Later last evening Mr. Shingle received additional news by cable to the effect that Miss Barracough was still unconscious and that the doctors had operated on her in an effort to save her life.

In a letter received by Mr. Shingle a few days ago from Mr. Lewis the latter said that Mrs. Lewis and their son Donald and Mrs. Phelps would leave on September 6 for the East and New York. This accounts for these former members of the party being absent from the list of injured.

Miss Barracough has a sister here, Miss Nettie Barracough, employed in the office of Smith, Warren and Hemmenway.

STEAMER PLEIADES AND CARGO SAVED

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

SAN FRANCISCO, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The steamer Pleiades, which recently went ashore in Magdalena Bay, was floated this morning without any serious damage. The vessel was floated at high tide and a careful examination showed that there was but a small hole in the bottom. The Pleiades had 650,000 feet of lumber on board. It will be able to reach this port on its own steam where it will undergo an overhauling.

NICARAGUAN REBELS THREATEN HONDURAS

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

WASHINGTON, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—A third and armed attack of Nicaraguan rebels upon Honduras in retaliation for the friendly Hondurans have shown the Diaz government, is reported in today's dispatches to the navy department. Arms have been dispatched to the Honduras towns on the frontier and the government is prepared to raise troops to repel an invasion.

Naval intelligence today reported he was patrolling the Bay of Fonseca to prevent filibustering in spite of the Nicaraguan insurrectionists.

IS GREETED FULL WITH HONORS

Secretary of State Knox Arrives in Japan and Is Welcomed by High Officials.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

TOKIO, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—United States Secretary of State P. C. Knox, the first special envoy to the funeral of the late Emperor Mutsuhito to reach Japan, arrived in Tokio this evening.

Mr. Knox was accompanied by Mrs. Knox and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The

WILSON WILL FIGHT SMITH FOR SENATOR

Democrats Declare War on Each Other in New Jersey—Charges Made.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

BALTIMORE, New Jersey, September 9.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Democratic presidential nominee, tonight declared war on James Smith, Jr., a Democratic candidate for United States senator from New Jersey.

Governor Wilson expressed himself in a statement addressed to the voters of New Jersey issued last night against the former United States senator.

Two years ago, Governor Wilson opposed Smith's candidacy for United States senator, but on the issue that James E. Martin, was the legal choice of the Democratic primary, the taxpayer was sustained by the legislature.

Today the governor went a step further by charging Smith with "utterly defeating the program of the Democratic party once before when the tariff issue was prominent."

CHARLES PAGE BRYAN, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts after the arrival of the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and a suite including Hansard Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department. The United States party was given a formal reception. Mr. Knox arrived in Tokio in the afternoon on the armored cruiser Massachusetts, which was converted into the barge by the Japanese battleship Fusō and the armored cruisers Iwate and Takao.

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, was the first person to go aboard the Massachusetts afterwards Baron Kuroki, the Japanese ambassador to France, accompanied by representatives of the Imperial household, of the foreign office and of the army and navy, went on board the United States vessel and greeted the ambassador.